

The Ottoman Lieutenant

March 4

A strong-willed woman, frustrated by injustices at home, leaves the USA after meeting Jude (Josh Hartnett), who runs a remote medical mission in the Ottoman Empire—a world both exotic & dangerous, and on the brink of what is about to become the first world war. There she finds her loyalty tested to both Jude & the mission's founder (Ben Kingsley). She falls in love with their perceived enemy, a lieutenant in the Ottoman Imperial Army (Michiel Huisman).